

WORD OF LIFE MINISTRIES

HOMOSEXUALITY

Genesis 5:2

Male and female created he them: and blessed them, and called their name Adam (mankind), in the day when they were created.

When God created Adam, he was created in holiness in the image of God. He was holy in spirit, soul, mind and body. God was creating someone He could commune and have a relationship with. In order for Adam to be able to commune and have a relationship with Him, he couldn't be of a sinful nature.

When God spoke to Jesus and said let us make man in our image, He was saying they were going to create man in holiness. He was going to be a man that had the attributes and character of his Creator.

There are many gods in the world, but there is only one God that is alive and the Creator of the Universe. He's holy, and in the beginning when man was created he too was walking and living in holiness.

When God created a helpmeet (comparable to him) for Adam, He created a woman; someone that would be similar to man, but different in character and genes. He created someone that would assist Adam in the reproduction of mankind because God had enough wisdom to know the difference between a man and a woman, so He created one that would plant and the other would produce. Adam called his mate wife. Webster along with other dictionaries defines wife as a female.

Genesis 3:20

And Adam called his wife's name Eve; because she was the mother of all living things.

Eve was created to reproduce whereas Adam had the seed, but he couldn't reproduce. According to the laws of nature, women are the only ones with a reproductive system. Marriage between a man and woman was ordained in the Garden of Eden by God. Heterosexual was created by God, homosexual was created by Satan.

Adam and Eve were given authority to rule their thoughts, wills, bodies and everything that dwelt on earth. When they gave their birthrights over to Satan, he brought forth sin, everything that was contrary to the character of God.

Before the fall of man both Adam and his wife weren't created to die, neither was Eve to have children through pain, but after their disobedience, they were punished. She was to have children through pain, and Adam's labor would no longer be enjoyed but in bitterness, and they were sent into exile.

After mankind was disobedience, sin began to manifest itself by the spirit of jealousy, murder and a lie. Whenever a satanic spirit seduces someone, it's never alone. Usually there are two or more seducing spirits: lust, pride, confusion, hurt, unforgiveness, and deceit are a few of the spirits that have seduced men and women to think they're something other than what God has created them. Seducing spirits entice and deceive an individual to be led away by lust which is an uncontrollable urge whether its heterosexual or homosexual. Homosexuality brings confusion to the mind of the individual. Although, they may say they're gay, inwardly they aren't as happy as they claim to be. They feel a void in their life and they look and search in all the wrong places to try to fulfill what's missing within their being. God never made mankind to be confused, but when they rejected God they open their hearts and minds and spirit to be seduced by spirits that would eventually destroy them physically and spiritually. Many times children that are conceived through fornication, adultery, rape or have parents that are either an atheist or agonist open their spirit as well as their children to seducing spirits, which causes them to be confused about their gender. If you think on something long enough your body will begin to respond or crave what you're thinking. Satan is after the mind because once he can control your mind, he has the individual doing what he wants them to do.

Satan imitates everything that God does, and just as John the Baptist was filled with the Holy Spirit prior to his birth, Satan can attack a child while it's still in the womb and when that child is born and raised in an ungodly home; the individual believes the lie that he or she has been told since conception.

If a study was done on born again Christians that were married prior to having a child and both parents were born again, there wouldn't be any that would have children practicing homosexuality, because first of all they conceived the child God's way. Secondly, a homosexual spirit cannot control or attack a child that has a praying mother and father.

Satan has blinded the eyes and intelligence of individuals to think that God has made a mistake in creating them and would send them to eternal damnation because he made them that way. This is the same God that has created the universe, created air where we can feel it, but can't see it; spoke the moon, stars, lakes, oceans, mountains and trees into existence.

He makes NO MISTAKES.

In God's wisdom, He created male and female in animals as well as in plants. You don't see dogs or cats trying to mate with the same gender, once they see they're the same gender, they go on their way, they don't stop and try to make out. Animals are much less intelligent than man, but yet they know they weren't created to have the same gender whereas mankind is confused, and think they should have the same gender. It's a spiritual thing, and until men, women, girls and boys begin to acknowledge God, they will always be confused.

When Eve was deceived in the Garden, Satan didn't tell her when she disobeyed God that she would lose fellowship with Him. He didn't tell her that she and her husband would be thrown out of the Garden. He didn't tell her because of their sin, the spirit of jealousy had been unleashed and her first born would be killed by her second child. Satan deceived Eve by seducing her will, and her thoughts. He's doing the same with those that are practicing homosexuality.

When Adam and Eve sinned against God and they heard him walking in the Garden they tried to hide themselves. Many are hiding themselves through false religion, atheism or believe in agnosticism because they don't want to hear the voice of God because of the sin that lives within.

When trying to talk to them about their life style, the first spirit that manifest, is defensiveness, then anger, fault-finding, and criticism. Satan has their eyes blinded to what is causing them to die immaturely. They can't see what their doing is an abomination.

God is a God of the past, present and future there is nothing we can do or have done that He doesn't know about, but because He has given us a free will, He's waiting on us to chose who we will serve. God knew Jeremiah the prophet before he was born.

Jeremiah 5:1

Before I formed thee in the belly (womb) I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb, I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

Just as He knew Jeremiah prior to his birth, He also knows us. You would think if there was an error in our making He would have corrected it prior to our birth. God doesn't make mistakes nor does He create homosexuals. He is a God of Holiness.

Homosexuality is a spirit and people can be delivered from it. Because mankind is either in doubt of God's power or they have no desire to be free from a life of sin that causes both physical and spiritual death. Satan has them fighting against the person that can heal and deliver them (Jesus). God says that homosexuality is an abomination; there is no way one could be serving Him and practicing homosexuality.

An abomination is something that is an offense to Him. Something that He hates. I am not saying that God hates homosexuals, but HE HATES THE SINS THEY COMMIT!

Look at it this way, something that you dislike, do you find yourself trying to keep company or have it or them around you? You love them from afar. Well, God is loving many of His people from afar; He's not speaking to their spirit, they can't feel His presence or hear His voice because sin has created a barrier between them and God.

God is a God of holiness, we can't approach Him any kind of way. We must come subject to His word, we must apply His word to our lives daily, seeking to please Him and not ourselves. If we please ourselves by our sinful desires, we're not pleasing Him and we can't have fellowship with Him because were living contrary to His word.

When the children of Israel were brought out of Egypt prior to them reaching the promise land of Canaan, God instructed Moses to instruct the children of Israel in how to serve God. Twice did God instruct them not to have sex with the same gender. Through out the book of Leviticus there were no other laws mentioned twice but that of homosexuality.

Leviticus 18:22

Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination.

If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

Abomination is something that is hated, it brings emotional and mental illness, confusion, oppression, depression, HIV as well as separation from God. I don't care if one attends church and is singing or preaching or whatever they maybe doing in the church, if they continue and don't repent and turned from their wicked ways, Hell has enlarged itself for them.

God wants every human to sanctify themselves to Him. His desire is that no man perish, but He has made us free will agents. We choose where we will rest forever.

Leviticus 20:7-8

Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be ye holy: for I am the Lord your God. And ye shall keep my statutes, and do them: I am the Lord which sanctify you.

This commandment wasn't just for the Jews, but it's for everyone that plans on walking through heaven's gates. The wages of sin is death, spiritually and physically. Every denomination must come by the way God has instructed us.

God will meet us where we are if we would be truthful to ourselves and to Him. He has promised us if we confess our sins, He would forgive our sins.

Homosexuality is a sin and when one is practicing they're sinning against God as well as their own bodies. Whether we defile the body by homosexuality or engaging in sex unlawfully we're causing death to come upon us physically and spiritually.

Satan has many of God's people bounded by their wills and emotions and because they will not humble themselves and pray and ask for forgiveness they will continually be tormented by Satan and his imps. Satan's goal is to try to detour everyone that he can from serving God. He doesn't want to be in torment alone, he wants as many as he can to join him in torment for eternity.

If death comes while one is in the act their automatically hell bound. When we die, our spirit does not die, it knows everything that is going on. Don't think because God loves us, he will not send us to hell. He's giving everyone a chance to correct their mistakes and to repent. What will you do, repent or continue to pay your way to hell!

Hell is a place where one would be separated from God forever and will be tormented. The little light tribulations one has now is nothing compared to being in torment forever because one would rather enjoy a five minute thrill that will cost them their life for eternity where the spirit and senses never die.

Satan is a deceiver, he never tells the individual the consequence of sin. He is the one that has the individual thinking that God made them to be homosexuals. He has them thinking because God made them that way, that it's ok, and God loves them and they will enter into heaven's gates, no the devil is a lie, no sin will enter into heaven's gates. If we could live by our standards there never would have been a reason for Jesus to die, we could have just continued in sin and go to heaven.

The bible is our insurance policy, it gives us instructions to follow in order to validate the policy. There are rules and regulations the policy holder must keep in order to redeem it at the time of death.

1st Peter 1:15-16

But as he which has called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation (conduct). Because it is written, Be ye Holy: for I am Holy.

The word of God is instructing all that has been born to follow His instructions for life, as surely as we have been born we shall also die and stand before our Creator. Life will follow us, life and happiness for those that kept God's instructions and eternal torment for those that reject His instructions. We're spiritual being closed in a body. Satan is a spirit and he speaks to an individual's mind, will and emotions.

Whoever we have a relationship with, that's who we will hear clearly whether its God or Satan and follow the instructions that has been given us. Whose instructions are you following?

Heaven nor Hell is an old wise fable, there is a heaven and a hell and we choose which one we shall go to by our choices.

Since God condemns homosexuality, He is not going to compromise with it, it's sin according to the word of God and no matter how we may give our time and monies for this organization or another to help the homeless, the mentally ill, or whatever one may be giving their time and money, if the soul sin and continues to sin, it shall be hell bound.

Salvation is not something that can be earned or bought. Salvation comes by faith in God and His Son. Once we receive salvation, we must then begin to follow the instructions of the word of God in order to grow in the grace of God. There isn't a soul that hasn't sinned, but once we come into the knowledge of the word of God, we're held responsible for what we hear.

Granted, there are many religions, and there are many people that are teaching and preaching that hasn't be called by God, but that still isn't an excuse to continue to live in sin. If one really desires the truth; God will direct him or her to the truth, but many times the individuals heart is harden, they don't want to acknowledge God, nor hear the truth, and that's what's keeping them from being healed. To be healed is to be restored or gain soundness of mind.

One's mind and senses have been seduced by Satan when they desire the same sex. God's desire for man was women, and God's desire for woman was man, that's why He created them different.

God is a God of Holiness, He has instructed us to be as He is, and the only way we can accomplish that is to humble ourselves before Him and let Him create in us a clean heart and right spirit. We must acknowledge our sin and be truthful to ourselves as well as to God.

Satan speaks to an individual the same way God speaks. That is why God has instructed us to try the spirit and see whether or not it is of God.

1 st John 4:1

Beloved, believed not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

Every voice we hear is not the voice of God. Ungodliness will cause one to hear lustful desires speaking and influencing them to do the very thing that God hates.

Many pastors and priest have rejected the teaching of God and is marrying homosexuals. The individuals are confused as it is, and then to have someone profess that they're a man or woman of God to agree with their satanic desires is only making it harder for them to desire to seek freedom.

Every soul that practice sin shall stand before the judgment throne whether their homosexuals or not. Sin is not categorize, the word of God says the wages of sin is death. Whatever we're doing and it's contrary to the word of God, it is classified as sin. God has a plan for those that are practicing sin and desire a way of escape. There isn't a person practicing sin that God does not love.

He doesn't love the sin their committing neither does He condone it, but He has promised us a way of escape and that's by acknowledging our sin.

1 st John 1:9

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

God gave His Son for our sins in order that we may have life and have it more abundantly. Jesus is sitting in heaven making petitions for everyone that is denying the power of God, forever one that feel that he or she is in something that they will never get out of. Many are practicing sin and have tried on many occasions to stop on their own, but it's going to take the power of God to deliver one from their sins. It's not by our own power that we can stop practicing sin, but its through the power of God that works through us to give us the grace to live according to His word when we make up our minds to make Him Lord of our lives. When we fall in love with God and His Son we no longer want to please ourselves, but to please Him and to do whatever He instructs us to do.

In order for one to receive forgiveness of their sins, all they have to do is be sorry from their hearts, and ask God to save them. It's not a magic trick, its not a long dragged out confession of everything you ever done, its just being sorry in your heart for what you have done and have a desire to stop doing what you're doing. God is not going to make anyone stop doing what their doing when they desire to do so, but when there's a heart that really desire to be free from practicing sin, God will come in and save whoever desire to be free.

God loves the homosexual just as much as He loved the thief that recognized his sins and asked Jesus to remember him when He came into His Kingdom. God has no respect of person. He doesn't love one person or group more than He loves the other, but His requirements for all of us is to follow His instructions through His word.

Homosexuality didn't come from God, but it's a spirit that came from Satan. There is deliverance from homosexuality and its through Jesus Christ, the Son of God. There isn't a sin that man or woman can commit and He wouldn't forgive the sin, except blaspheme the Holy Spirit.

There are many in church practicing homosexuality, singing in the choir, ushering, preaching and teaching and going to hell if they don't repent and ask God to deliver them from the spirit of lust and homosexuality. There are many men and women that were practicing homosexuality and God delivered them. Just as He delivered them, He will deliver anyone that has a desire to come out from that life style. When one denies themselves from the truth, they're denying the power of God.

Titus 1:16

They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate (disqualified)

Apostle Paul made the statement, "After he have preached to others and he didn't obey by the same rule he taught, he too would be a castaway". Meaning if he disobeyed, he wouldn't enter to heaven either.

The word of God is true, Jesus is the Son of God and He came to earth to save mankind from themselves as well as the sins that Satan influence mankind with. Jesus is waiting not only for the homosexual, but every one that is practicing sin. Now is the time people need to repent and seek God like never before. Many are dying without Christ in their lives. If death knocks on our door and we haven't repented we shall wake up where the fire doesn't stop and the spirit doesn't die.

Jesus said for us to watch and pray, and hold on to the things that we have learned of Him. He's not saying to know the word of God and then don't obey it. Satan knows the word, he quoted scriptures to Jesus, so by knowing the word of God and not complying to it makes one a citizen for judgment. We're liable for every word we have heard about the bible and the Son of God. When we deny the teaching we're denying Jesus, and Jesus said if we deny Him, He would deny us before the Father.

Matthew 10:33

But whosoever shall deny me before men will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

Rejection is a bad feeling, and no one wants to be rejected. When we deny God or His Son, we're rejecting Them. When we're rejected by people, it's God that heals the hurt, but when we reject God because we don't want to let go of the sins were practicing, when its our turn to be rejected of God no one can get us out of His hand. Either we're going to serve Him or we're not. We're going to either live holy by His standards of holiness or we're going to live an ungodly life style according to His standards.

Wars and rumors of wars are happening as the Bible has stated. The Bible is fulfilling itself right before our eyes, I wouldn't want death or Jesus to return for me and I didn't have Jesus as my Savior. There is life after death, where the spirit never dies whether its with God the Father, or Satan the father of lies. Ask yourself, if death were to knock on your door, can you truthfully say that you know that you will go to heaven? When someone is captured by sin, they are in bondage, they no longer control their wills or emotions because Satan is dangling them like a puppet. Whose pulling your strings?
